Fernwood Primary School are proud to be part of Nottingham City and Nottingham Schools Trust.

We are a large school – the site is made up of 4 buildings – the Infant building, the Junior building and a Nursery building, plus Enhanced Provisions – The Lighthouse and The Clubhouse.

We are proud to have been recently awarded the Opal Platinum Play Award.

We are looking to recruit caring and friendly Midday Supervisors/Play Team to start as soon as possible:

- Support and supervise the promotion of positive and creative play at lunchtimes in line with Opal practice and ethos
- Supervise pupils in designated areas of the school (including playground or external spaces) during the lunchtime break, including supervision of pupils indoors on wet lunchtimes.
- To control queues to the dining areas
- To encourage dining arrangements that promotes an orderly and pleasant meals service for pupils.
- To see that the dining areas are left clean and tidy and tables are clean
- To wipe trays where necessary.
- To deal with pupils' behaviour problems in the dining room and elsewhere and report any serious incidents to the Senior Midday Supervisor/Play Team Leaders
- To deal with accidents and any sickness and report them to the Senior Midday Supervisor/Play Team Leaders
- Attend relevant training as required.
